QUEENSTOWN'S ORIGINAL PIZZA BAR

OUR FIVE STAR PIZZA STORY

The Fat Badgers perfect pizza starts with dough. Our base is an original recipe* and, most importantly, it's prepared fresh each day. Why do we need it fresh? Because we then need to knead it, sizing everything exactly before leaving it rise for 12 hours. Every base should rest for at least half of the earth's axial rotation. Only then can it be rolled and tossed to ensure the perfect base.

Why do we hand toss our bases? It's not just for the looks. Often restaurants use equipment to shape their bases, which is obviously quicker and easier. However hand tossing keeps the moisture in the base and the crust softer. Expert spinning creates the ideal but unique shape each and every time. It's why we only employ chefs with suitably large hands, those who can comfortably pick up a basketball with one hand.

It's not just the base that needs to be perfect. We don't compromise on the quality of our ingredients or the generosity of our servings either. In our little community a good reputation must be set right and stoked hot each day. As Queenstown's original pizza bar we know you can't win hearts and minds without first capturing the puku. We'll never settle for simply being the biggest. We have to be the best.

The result is a pizza at once traditional and exceptional. A pizza to feed a hungry team or ravenous horde. A pizza to mend a broken heart or fuel a new love. A pizza to gather and celebrate around, to salivate and pontificate over. A pizza to leave you dazed, inspired and entirely satiated. And what's more important that that?
